This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications.

However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

This device generates and uses radio frequency (RF) energy, and if not installed and used properly, this equipment may cause interference to radio and television reception.

If this equipment does cause interference to radio or television reception (which you can determine by unplugging the unit), try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Re-orient the receiving antenna (that is, the antenna for the radio or television that is "receiving" the interference).
- Move the unit away from the equipment that is receiving interference.
- Plug the unit into a different wall outlet so that the unit and the equipment receiving interference are on different branch circuits.

If these measures do not eliminate the interference, please consult your dealer or an experienced radio/television technician for additional suggestions.

Also, the Federal Communications Commission has prepared a helpful booklet, "How To Identify and Resolve Radio TV Interference Problems." This booklet is available from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402. Please specify stock number 004-000-00345-4 when ordering copies.

How to optimize LyraSync and Lyra Jukebox capabilities:

Caution: This will only work if the size of all the files in the PC Music folder do not exceed the capacity of the Lyra Jukebox.

1. Create a folder called Music on the PC (For example on the C: drive - C:\Music).
2. Organize all the music that you want on the Lyra Jukebox under this folder.
3. Define the Music folder to be the Lyra Sync folder.
4. Select Synchronize PC and Device.
5. After synchronization you will have a folder on the Lyra Jukebox called Music and it will be an identical copy of all the content in the PC Music folder. This will also make it easy to use LyraDJ.

MTP/MSC switching

Why do I want to use MTP (Media Transfer Protocol) Mode?

MTP Mode is essential if you want to transfer DRM content to your Lyra Jukebox. Today MTP Mode is only supported in Windows XP and through Windows Media Player 10.0 or other special software provided by your music service provider. In MTP mode your Lyra Jukebox will no longer show up as a drive letter. So programs that were designed to work with a device that shows up as a drive letter will not be able to work directly with the Lyra Jukebox.

Why do I want to use MSC (Mass Storage Class) Mode?

If you are using Windows 98SE, ME or 2000 you can not use MTP Mode only MSC Mode is available. Your Lyra Jukebox will always show up as a MSC device.

If you are using Windows XP your Lyra Jukebox will show up as a MTP device, but we have provide you the option to be able to switch it to MSC Mode with a setting in the Advanced Options section of the Lyra Jukebox. Once this setting is set to MSC Mode every time you connect the device to the PC it will show up as a drive letter and allow you to use any software that can work with MSC Mode. This will also allow the current version of LyraDJ or any other playlist editing program to find the device.

All supported content put on the device in either mode MTP or MSC will be available to play on the device once it is disconnected from the PC. So you could add mp3 files in the MSC Mode then run LyraDJ, Profile the device and disconnect it. Then switch it to MTP Mode and reconnect it and add DRM content to it.

Portable Hard Drive Capability

Since Lyra Jukebox has a 5-gigabyte hard drive, you can use it to transport files - any files, not just music files. Some possible uses for this feature are as follows:

- Create back-ups/archive files.
- Connect to other computers - at work, for example.
- Transport digital photo albums.
- Transport files from one computer to another computer. For example, instead of putting files at work on a zip or accessing them on your home computer via e-mail or remote access, you can put the files on your Lyra Jukebox.
- Capture internet downloads.
- Share information.

Problem: Player cannot play WMA songs.

- If this is a secured music, it requires Windows XP SP1 or higher (SP=Service Pack) and Windows Media Player 10 to transfer it into the device, drag and drop method will not work.

Additional Information

"Cannot turn on unit even when the power adapter is connected."

- Battery is deeply discharged / empty. Charge the unit for at least 3 hours before powering up.

Problem: All the songs appear twice in my unit.

- It is possible that you have copied all your songs into the Music Folder for use with LyraDJ. To resolve the problem, delete the duplicate files that are outside Music Folder. (LyraDJ only works on files that are in a folder called Music.) Next time when you need to move file on the player, use the Move command instead of the Copy command.

Cannot playback tracks on the player.

- Make sure audio tracks are encoded in the mp3 or Windows Media formats at supported bitrates.
Bitrates support by the player:
mp3 – 32 to 320 kbps
wma – 48 to 160 kbps
- WMA files may be DRM protected and you don't have the proper rights (license) to play the files.
- Check the website and/or application help system of the music download service provider from where the content was purchased from for license acquisition details. For more information on how license acquisition works, go to www.microsoft.com/windowsmedia/drm.
